

Easing Access to Systemic Discovery of Our Origins and Resources (EASYDOOR)

titled project with the identification code of ROHU-349

won subsidy within the Interreg V-A Romania-Hungary Program 2014-2020, with the leadership of Self-Government of Szabolcs-Szatmár-Bereg County.

In the first round of the project (Concept Note), the costs of the preparation can be financed in relation to the full application of the project (Full Application) (example construction plans, feasibility studies, etc.)

The Full Application will be finalized expectedly in 2019. december.

The Project's main objective is the sustainable development of the target region by organizing a single, coherent cross-border touristic area, based on natural, historic, and cultural heritage resulted in the increased number of visitors.

This project's goal and originality is to offer more than just the cultural and historic heritage and the natural values, but to bring special experiences to the tourists of the region by setting up and promoting thematic routes and tourist attractions.

This special application transfer of the knowledge about the attractions included in this project.

Planned investments:

- Religious heritage scenes (15 pieces – Ajak, Eperjeske, Fényeslitke, Gávavencsellő, Kisvárda [2 pieces], Kállósemjén, Mátészalka, Nagyar, Nagykálló, Nyírbogát, Nyíribrony, Nyírtass, Székely, Tarpa)
- Cultural heritage scenes (1 piece – Nyírbátor)
- Scenes of public collection, interactive exhibitions (4 pieces – Szatmárnémeti, Nyíregyháza, Érpatak, Baktalórántháza)
- Scene of natural heritage (1 piece – Nagykálló)
- Media and marketing center (3 pieces – Mátészalka, Kisvárda, Fehérgyarmat)

Project partners:

- Self-government of Szabolcs-Szatmár-Bereg County (HU, Lead Partner)
- „Kölcsey” Television Program Service Nonprofit Limited Liability Company. (HU, Partner)
- Szabolcs-Szatmár-Bereg County Regional Development and Environmental Management Agency Nonprofit Ltd. (HU, Partner)
- Territorial Administrative Unit of Satu Mare County (RO, Partner)
- Satu Mare County Museum (RO, Partner)

Budget (EUR):

Concept Note total budget: 348 825,98 euro

Nyíregyháza, 2019.09.30.